“We change lives”

February 2016 Newsletter

Welcome to the New Year. Although we don't meet in December or January that doesn't mean we have been entirely idle.

Starting the Year with a Sausage Sizzle at Noosaville Bunnings on 16th January was a great way to catch up with everyone and start the year in the Treasurer's good books with a boost to the coffers. Thanks to Lorraine R for organising and to everyone who worked. Now that Bunnings have the gazebo set up permanently the set up was not quite so arduous, especially as it was raining! If everyone could try to commit to doing at least one two hour shift this year at a Sausage Sizzle it would spread the work load.

At the time for the Picnic at Quota Park in Noosaville the weather looked a bit threatening, but luckily held off. The great turnout of members and spouses had a lovely relaxing lunch with good company and good food.

February is the time when we will be calling for nominations for the Board for 2016. Please give serious consideration to taking on a position or agreeing to shadow someone to learn the ropes.

July is the month that our Club turns 21 and a committee of Charter Members and a few others met to get the ball rolling. It was decided to hold a small dinner with just our members to celebrate. A tentative booking has been made at the Coolum Beach Hotel for this purpose.

We would like to hold a dinner meeting early in the year and would like suggestions for where to go as well.

Barb Wimp is getting a budget together and if you have any groups that you would like us to assist, please have these ideas ready for the meeting. Also get your thinking hats on for some activities for our social nights. Friendship and fellowship are an important part of the Club.

Walking Wounded: Beryl is still incapacitated after needles into back, hip and knee. Jan C has become a one armed bandit after shoulder surgery. Good news is she can still put ice into a glass for her Scotch. Nell is recovering well after surgery to the tendons on her thumb and index finger. Her thumb is already trying to move independently. Get well soon ladies.

Geraldine has become a grandmother again. Her daughter gave birth to a baby boy, Jacob Ryan in January - a very welcome son after three girls. Congratulations to them all.
